So Pigwitch concentrated with all her might.

She screwed up her eyes,

She hopped on one foot,

She even stood on her head.

Finally, just when she had given up hope . . .

She felt a teeny, tiny spark inside her.

First it fizzed behind her eyes,

growing larger and larger.

Then it rushed through her tummy!

Tingled her toes!

Tickled her bottom!

And . . .

"Hurrah!" shouted the cow.
ZAP!
"Hurrah!" clucked the chickens.
"Oh, my goodness!" said Pigwitch.
"The wise old pig was right!
My tail does the job much better than any wand!"
"Hurrah!" sang the cats.
