Milo was having fun clambering through the trees, when he suddenly noticed something strange in the grass below.

Perhaps it's just a pretty pebble, thought Milo.

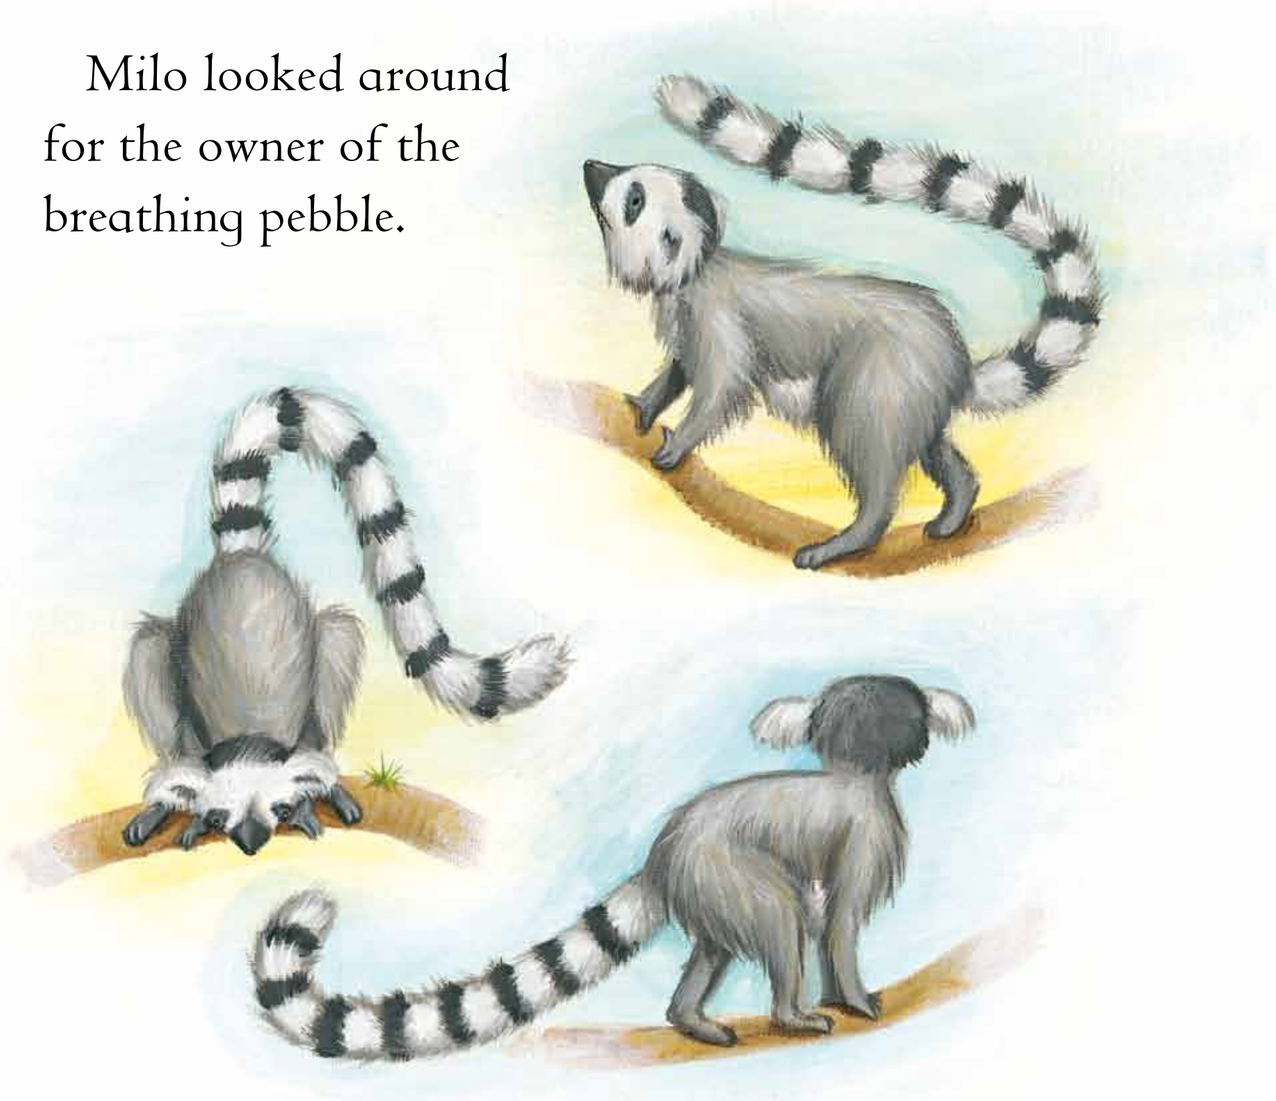

He prodded it to be certain.
But to his surprise,
it moved!

Milo carefully put his ear to the pebble.
To his amazement, it was breathing.

It was alive!

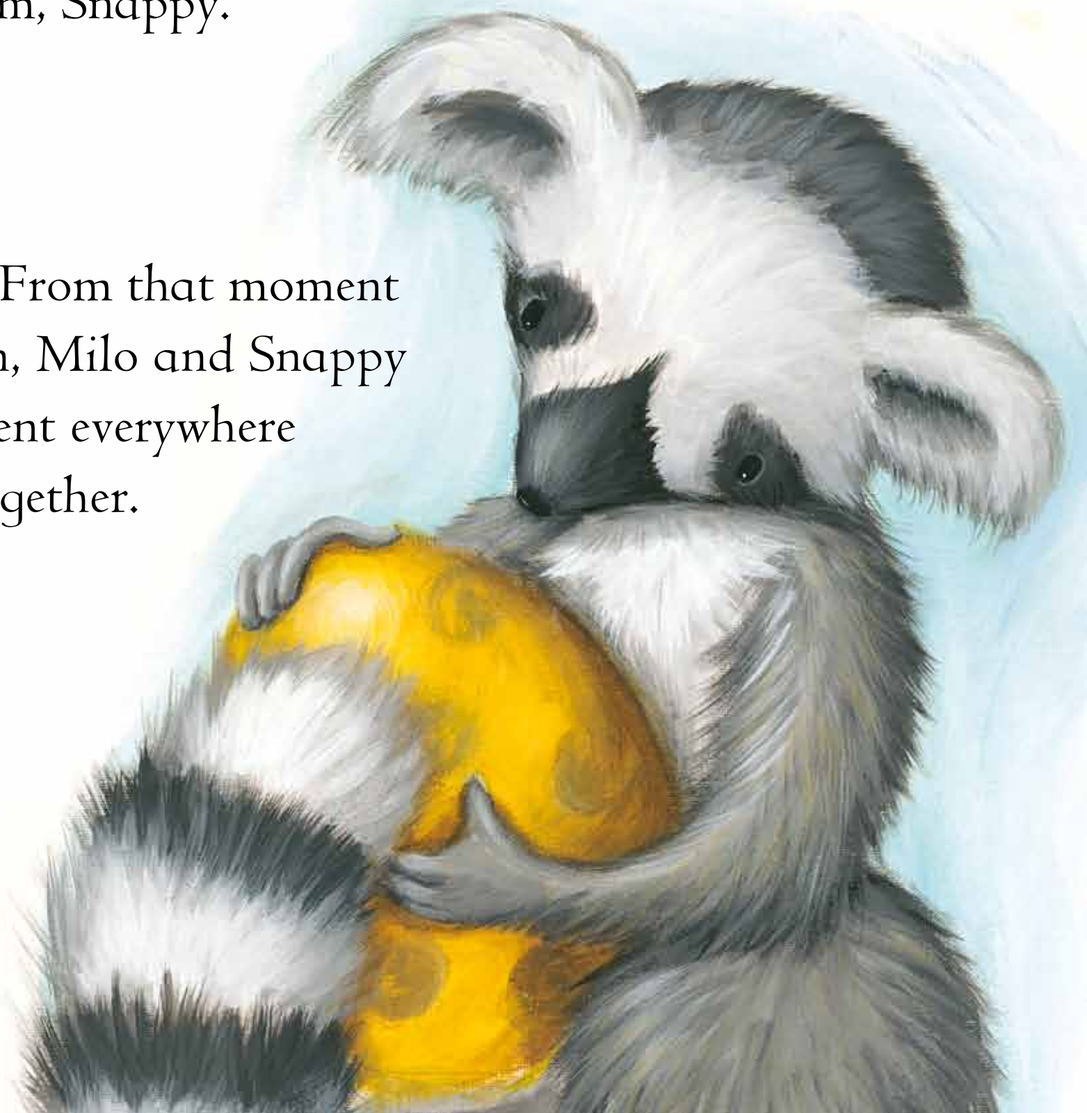

Milo looked around for the owner of the breathing pebble.

But he could not find anyone.

'Well, it looks like I'll have to take care of you!' declared Milo. 'I'll call you, erm, Snappy.'

From that moment on, Milo and Snappy went everywhere together.

Milo showed Snappy how to swing . . .
