Mr Chicken loved to travel.
His French friend Yvette had invited him to visit,
so he studied his maps, grabbed his camera
and caught a taxi to the airport.

When he arrived, Yvette was there to greet him.
'Bonjour, Monsieur Poulet. Welcome to Paris.'
'Bonjour, Yvette!' said Mr Chicken. 'How wonderful to see you!'

Mr Chicken was tired after his long flight, but rest was out of the question.
He was keen to see the sights, so Yvette bought a museum pass and travel card for two.

After years of looking at pictures in books,
Mr Chicken could hardly believe he was really in Paris.
