“I love my mum,” said the small giraffe,
“because she can reach up so high –
as high as the leaves on the tallest trees
that almost grow up to the sky.”

“I love my mum,” said the elephant,
“because she is so very STRONG.
She helps with things that are hard for me –
the things that I sometimes get wrong.”

“I love my mum,” said the baby whale, “because she shows me how to swim –
up where the waves all go splish and splash
and down where it’s dark and dim.”
