There are lots of patients in the waiting room.
Waiting can be quite Boring . . .

A whimsical illustration of various animals in a waiting room. A lion sits on a stool, looking bored. A hedgehog sits on a chair, holding a small object. A porcupine sits on a chair, holding a bundle of sticks. A dog sits on a chair, looking down. A cat lies on the floor, eating. A mouse sweeps the floor. A chicken stands near a basket. The background shows a simple room with blue walls and yellow floors.

Four illustrations of a dog with orange and white stripes performing various dance moves. The dog is shown in four different poses: a handstand, a backflip, a backbend, and a side flip. Each pose is accompanied by motion lines to indicate movement. The dog is standing on a small patch of yellow ground.
