Next day the snow
began to fall.

'We'd better go and fetch
the sheep down from the hill,'
said Farmer Joe to Collywobble's mum, Bess. 'You mind the place while we're away!'
he told the little pup, with a laugh.

Collywobble set off up the lane to see if he could find them.

The snow was freezing cold on his tiny paws, and every now and then he'd sink in till he was nearly buried.

'You've a clever little pup there, Joe,' said Farmer Dai. 'You'd have been in big trouble without him!'

'Goodness me!' said Farmer Dai when he saw what had happened. He helped Joe and Bess out of the crumpled truck, and back up to his own.
