The apple was stuck.

The apple was very stuck.

The more he tried to get it off, the more it stuck onto his back.

Oh no, he thought, and started to cry.
I have no one to help me!

And then he cried even harder
as he thought of having to live with an apple on his back.

He cried so hard he didn't hear the voice above him.

"Hmmm, an apple. At last an apple has rolled into my paddock."
