Snow Bunny's Christmas Wish

Rebecca Harry

nosy crow

Snow Bunny lived all by herself deep in the wintry forest.

Every day she hummed a happy song, but there was one thing she wished for more than anything.

On Christmas Eve, Snow Bunny decided to ask
Santa to make her wish come true.
So she wrote a letter in her best handwriting.

Dear Santa,
For Christmas please
may I have a friend?
This is the only present I truly want.
Thank you.
S.S.B

She addressed
the envelope carefully so it wouldn't get lost in the post,

and she hurried out into the frosty air just in time . . .

. . . to see Red Robin Postman flying away.
She had missed the post by a whisker.

"Oh, no!" said Snow Bunny. "I shall have to deliver my letter to Santa myself."
