ANT and BEE

is my first alphabetical story written for shared reading.

If a parent or older child reads the black words then young children can join in the storytelling by calling out the 3-letter words printed in red. I have illustrated each 3-letter word as it is introduced.

I hope that shared reading of ANT and BEE will delight and inspire.

This book is called

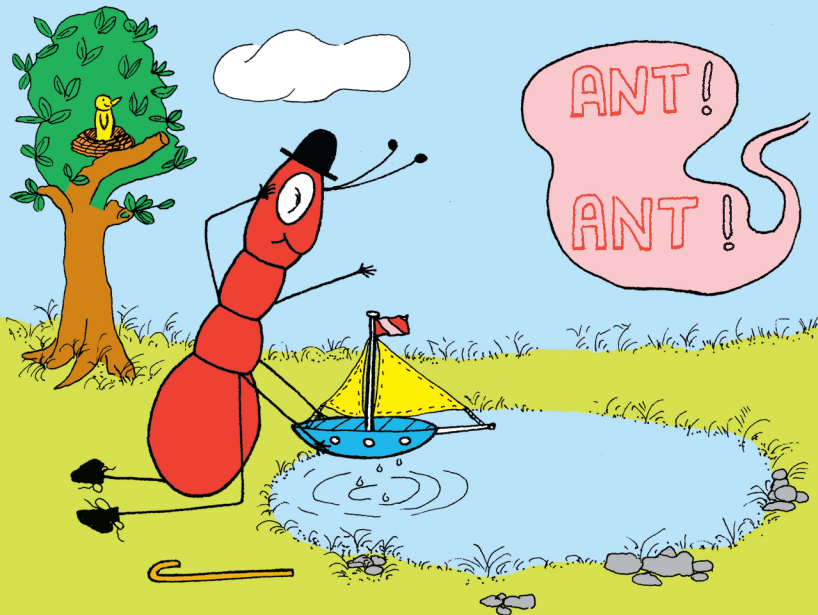

Ant and Bee

because it is all about

Bee and

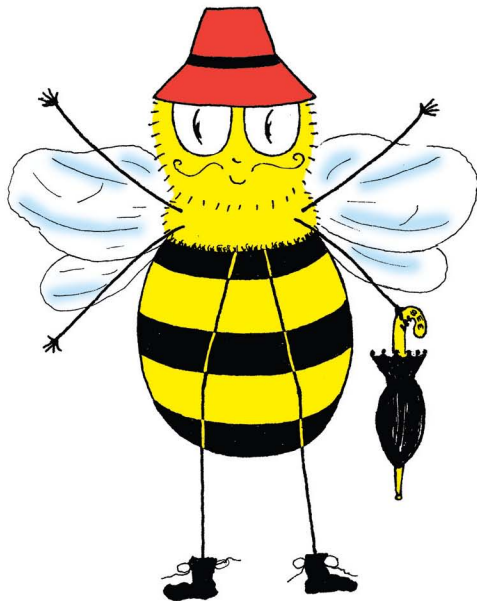

Ant

One day Ant stopped playing because he was called by

Bee

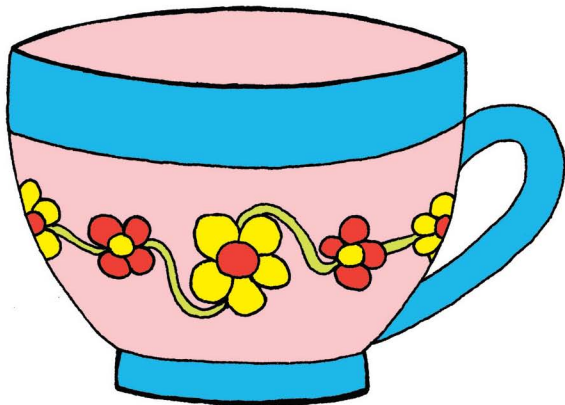

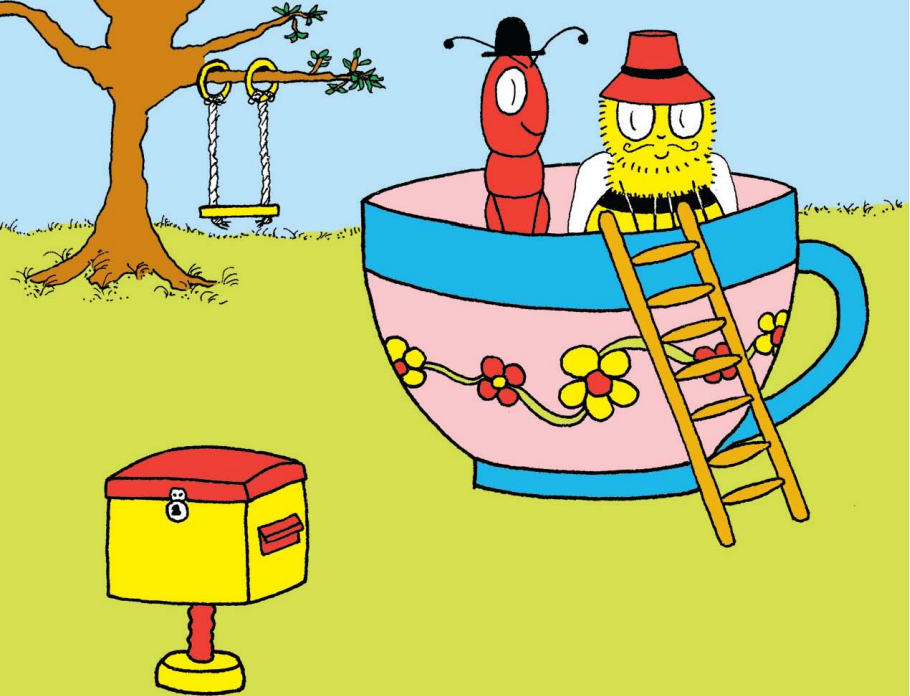

ANT !
ANT !

Bee called Ant to come home to their

cup

The cup was a nice home.
Bee told Ant they must wait in their cup home . . . because their best friend was coming to their cup to see them.

Their friend was called Kind

Dog

Kind Dog said he had come to take Ant and Bee for a ride on his back. So OFF went Kind Dog and Ant and Bee, loppity loppity lop, to far away.

Far away, on the ground in front of Kind Dog, there sat an egg
