More ANT and BEE

is my second alphabetical story written for shared reading.

If a parent or older child reads the black words then young children can join in the storytelling by calling out the 3-letter and 4-letter words printed in red. I have illustrated each 4-letter word as it is introduced.

More ANT and BEE means more red words!
Together with the new 4-letter words are the 3-letter words from my first alphabetical story ANT and BEE.

Bee said Asia was a very big part of the world.

Bee said Asia was hotter than their garden.

Then Ant wanted to go to Asia.

Ant wanted to feel how hot it was in Asia . . . so Bee said they would go to Asia in a
