In a clump of trees on the edge of a park there lived a badger. He was a very hungry badger, and his tummy wouldn't stop rumbling.

One day a boy came to the park.
He had a sandwich with him.
It had fresh white bread
and peanut butter.

It was a beautiful sandwich.

The boy took his sandwich to the playground.

He was about to take a bite when a girl bumped him and it fell in the sandpit.

Now the fresh white bread was covered in gritty sand.

"Well," said the little girl, "you can't eat it now. It's disgusting."
