The time came for the festival meal. Jesus shared a meal with his twelve chosen friends.

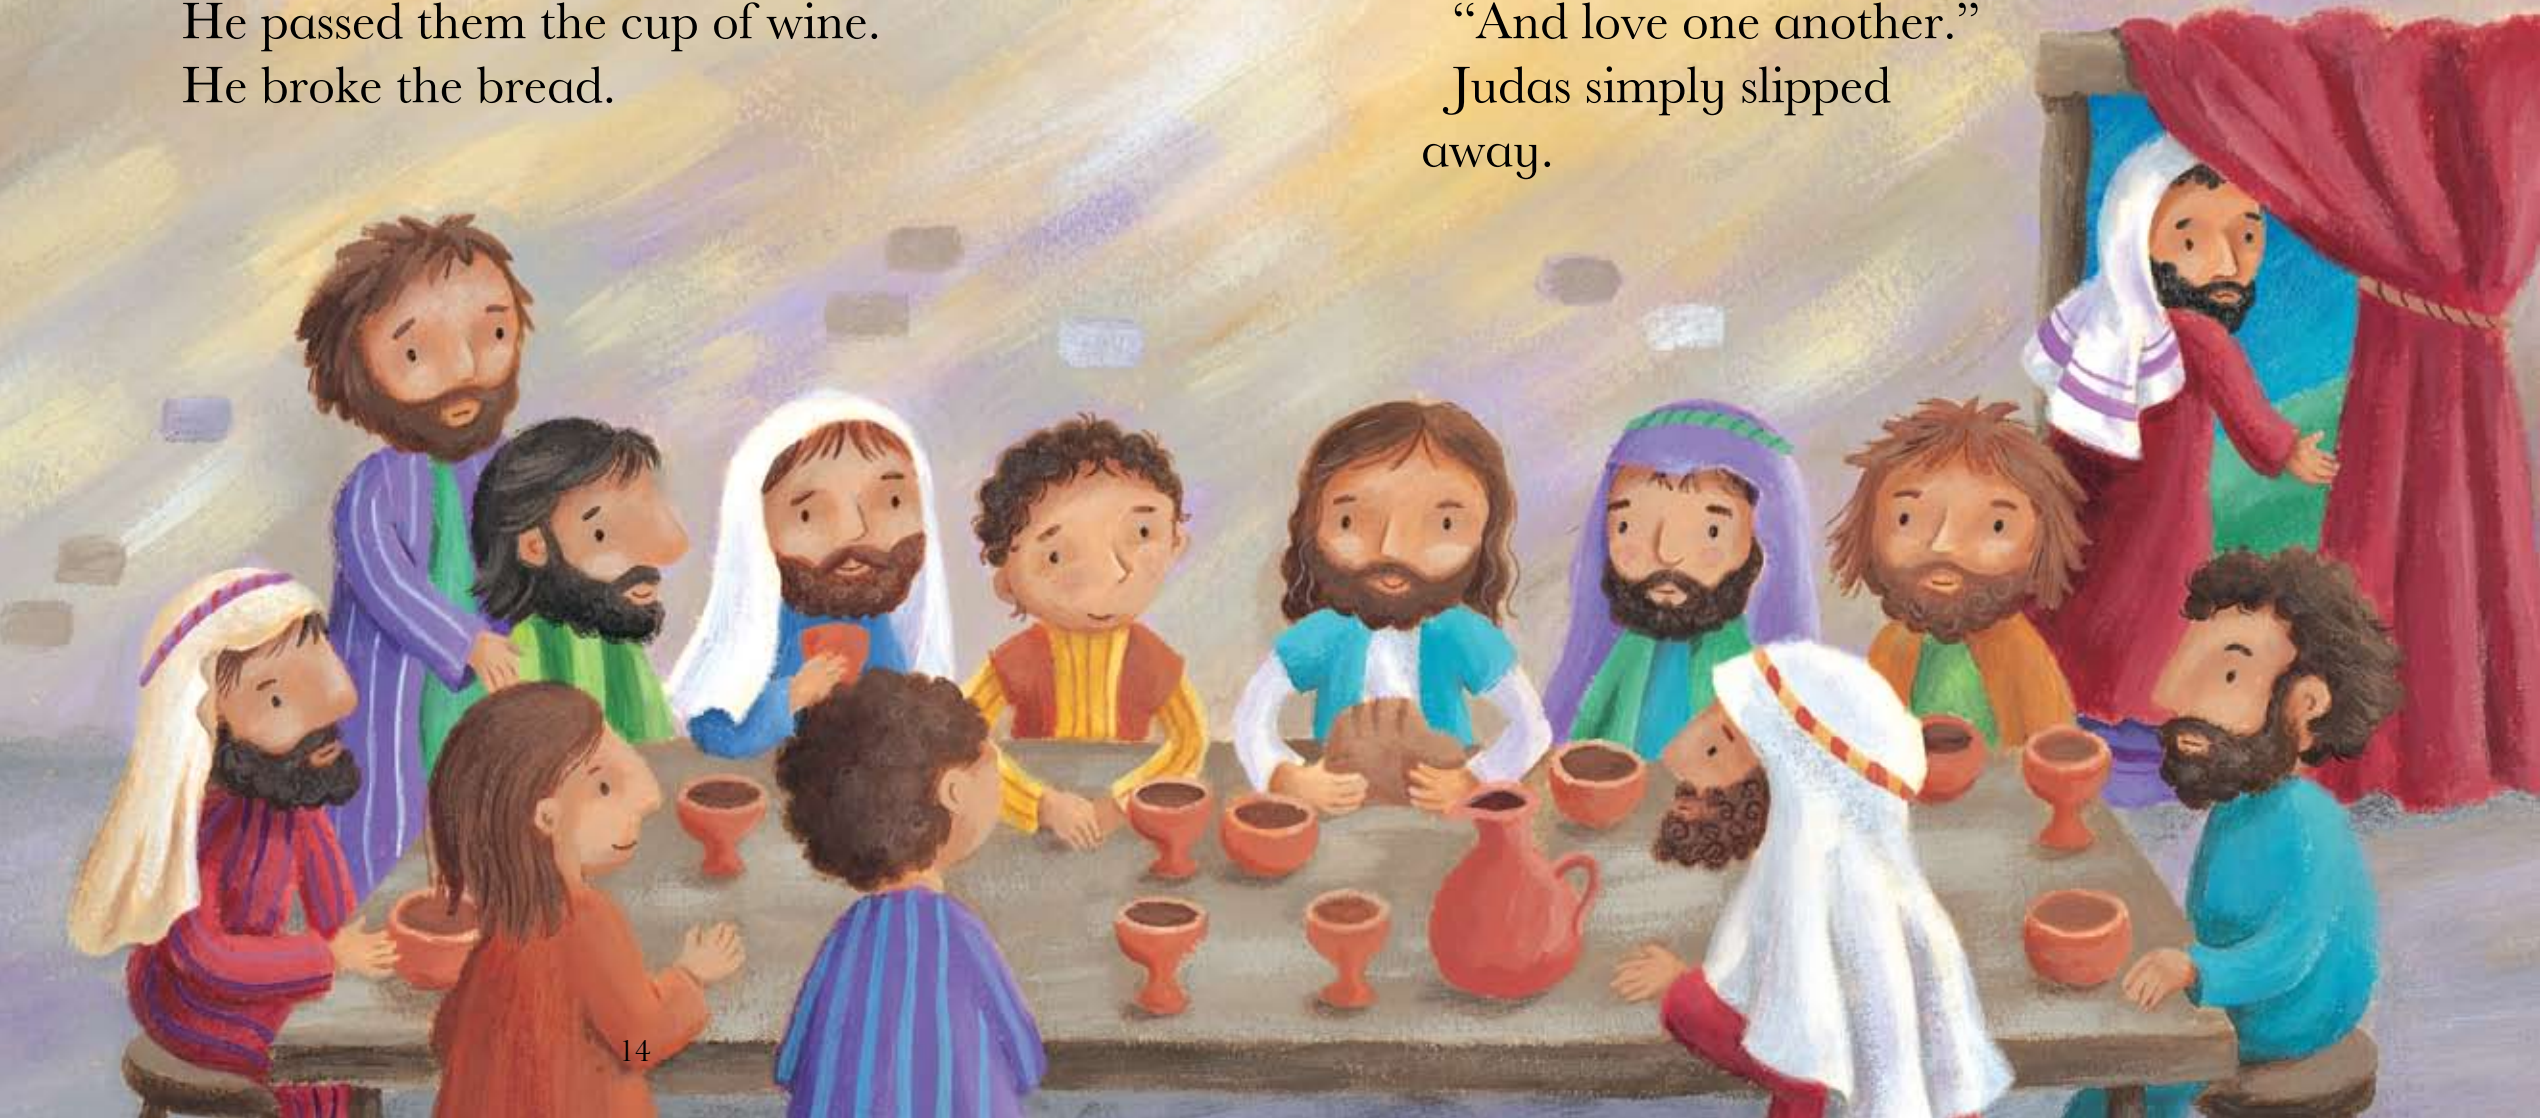

He passed them the cup of wine.

He broke the bread.

"When I am gone, share a meal like this, and remember me," he said.

"And love one another."

Judas simply slipped away.

Early on the Sunday, some women returned to the tomb. They wanted to say a proper goodbye.

To their amazement, the door was open. The tomb was empty.

Two angels appeared. “Jesus is not here,” they said. “He is alive again.”
