weasel holes?

of these
are wrong.

What they really
do is...

...plot world domination!

And today they take over the world.

Count down ...
