They saw some sheep on a hill.
"Look," said Mother, "sheep."
"They're woolly, and boring," said Eeny.
"I bet they can't swim," said Meeny.
"Are we there yet?" asked Miney.
"Baa, baa," said Little Moe.

And they waddled
on their way.

Then on and on they waddled.
"Are we there yet?" said Eeny.
"Are we there yet?" said Meeny.
"Are we there yet?" asked Miney.
"Quack, quack!" said Little Moe.

They came to a pond. “We’re here!” said Mother.
“Our beautiful pond,” said Eeny.
“I can go swimming,” said Meeny.
“Our pond looks enormous!” said Miney.
“Hello, pond,” said Little Moe.

And they quacked and splashed and swam untill
they couldn’t swim
any more.
