BOB AND ROB

FRANCES LINCOLN
CHILDREN'S BOOKS

leave banana skins on pavements,

ring people's doorbells,

and set off fire alarms.

Bob was Rob's dog,
and he didn't do
any of these things
because he was good.
Really GOOD!

He ironed,

he helped
old ladies
cross the road,

and he baked
the most spectacular
cakes.

And he was taught
by his mum always to be faithful to his owner.

Yes, even if he was a burglar.
