

Helping your children choose books they will love

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

Opening extract from Tilly and Friends
The Best Day Ever

Written by Polly Dunbar

Published by Walker Books Ltd

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

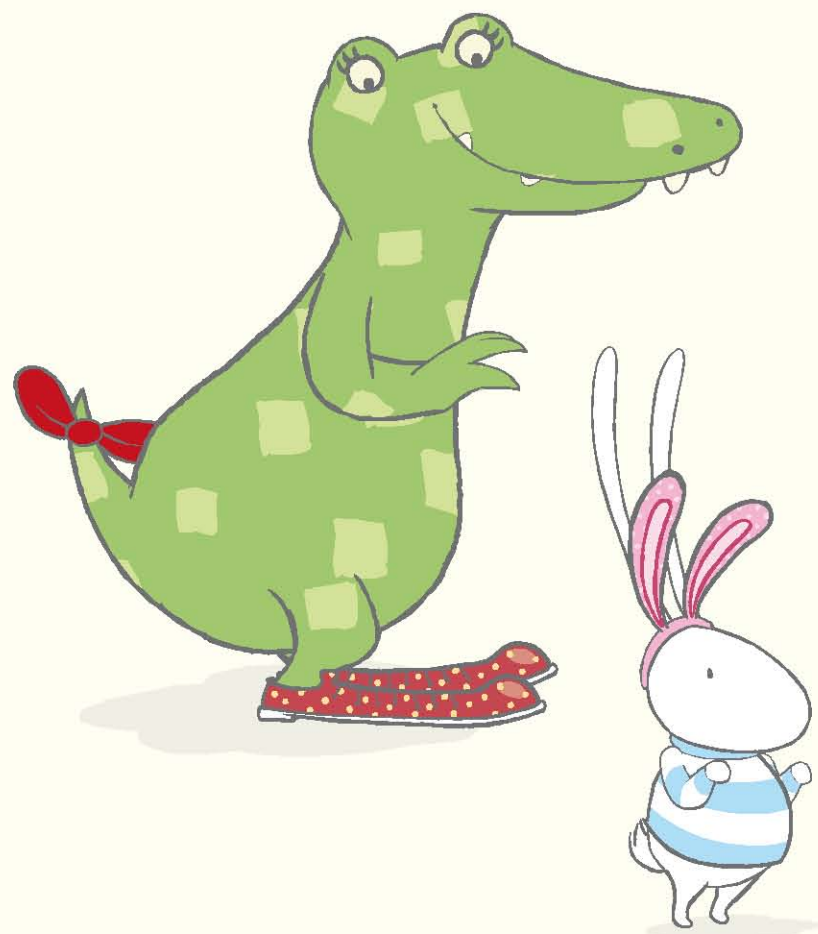

It was morning in the Yellow House,
the start of a great day.

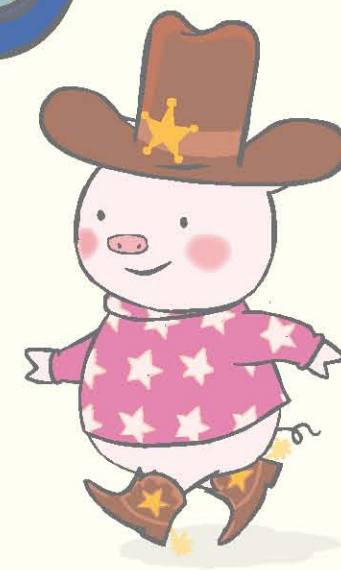

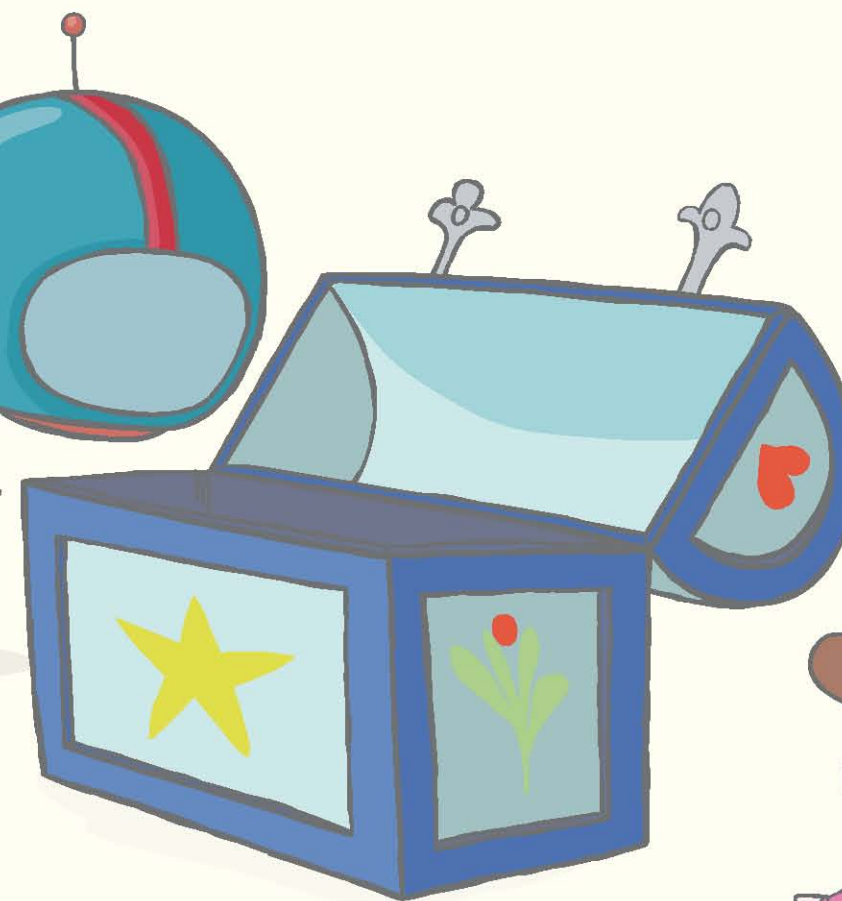

Tilly and her friends were painting pictures.

Soon it was time to play dressing-up.

"I'm a fireman,"
said Tumpy.

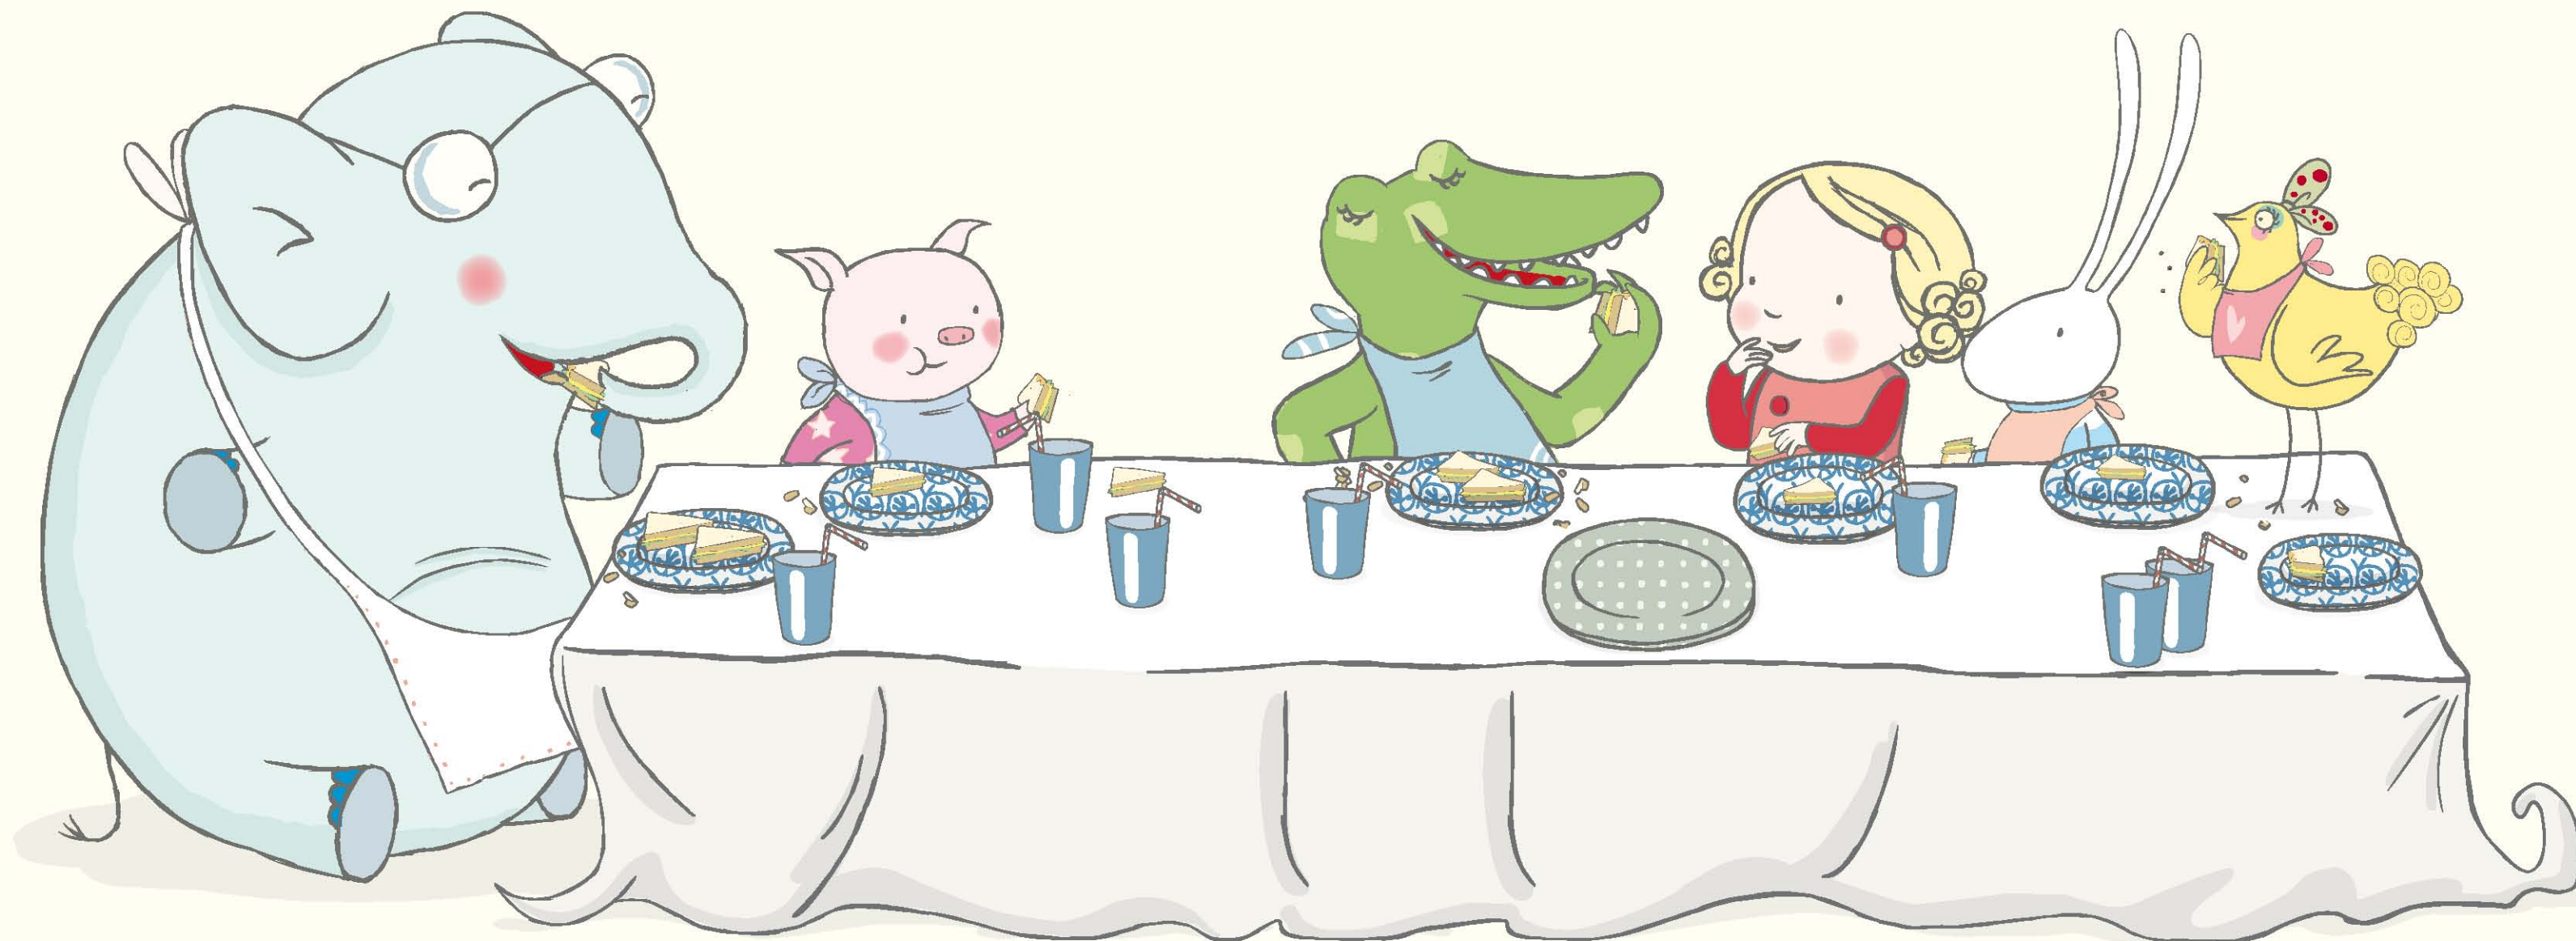

"And I'll be an astronaut!"
said Tilly.

Tilly brought sandwiches and everyone
sat down to a delicious feast.

"I'm hungry," said Doodle.
"Bitey, bitey!"

Then everyone went outside to play tiddly-winks.

The buttons were too small for Tumpty, so Tilly found something better.

Everyone had a grand time.