EGMONT LUCKY COIN

Our story began over a century ago, when seventeen-year-old Egmont Harald Petersen found a coin in the street.

He was on his way to buy a flyswatter, a small hand-operated printing machine that he then set up in his tiny apartment.

The coin brought him such good luck that today Egmont has offices in over 30 countries around the world. And that lucky coin is still kept at the company's head offices in Denmark.

Spaghetti with the Yeti

EGMONT

A boy called George had an excellent plan
To go and discover the Yeti.
He put in his backpack a warm woolly hat,
A map and a tin of spaghetti.

Slowly, George climbed up a steep mountain path
In search of the mythical beast . . .

When he stumbled straight into a monster
Who was eating a sumptuous feast.

"Hurray!"
shouted George,
"I knew you'd be here.
I'm sure that you must be the Yeti."

The monster stood up with a furious gaze . . .

"Are you crazy?
My name is Betty!"

"So sorry, Betty," said George with a smile,
"But I'm taking the Yeti some lunch."

"In that case you'll want to take some of these bones,
For the Yeti likes food with a crunch!"
