Letters to Santa

Welcome to Santa's workshop, where the elves are busy sorting Christmas-wish letters sent by children from around the world.

Fill the pages with stickers of the mail being delivered and add an elf sitting at his desk.

Making toys

Clonk... clunk... clatter! The elves are helping robots to make toy lions. One robot is painting the lions' eyes, another one is adding the clothes, while the yellow robot is sewing on their manes.

Press on the stickers of the busy elves and the half-finished toys.
