In Around the World with ANT and BEE
I bring the countries and peoples of the world to life for young children, as they travel with Ant and Bee looking for Bee's loved and lost  .

All my ANT and BEE books are for shared reading. If a parent or older child reads the black words then young children can join in the storytelling by calling out the words printed in red and "umbrella" when the  appears. While they enjoy Ant and Bee's adventures, I hope children will become familiar with some of the features of our wonderful world.
