"Time to try this machine out, Riley," said Jack. Riley wagged his tail and jumped up into the cab. Something magical always happened when they went on a test drive!

Jack revved the engine—

The workshop doors opened with a loud CLUNK and the truck motored out into . . .

a deep, dark cave!

Eyes glinted at them from the shadows.
"Eek!" Jack gulped, quickly putting his headlights on full beam.
"This place is creepy. Let's get out of here!"

Jack had a sneaking suspicion that they were being followed.
He was very happy when he saw a circle of daylight at the end of a tunnel. He put the truck into overdrive and raced towards it.

Jack and Riley blinked as they roared out into the bright sunshine. They were surrounded by giant trees.
"Phew, it's good to be out of there!" said Jack.
But suddenly . . .
