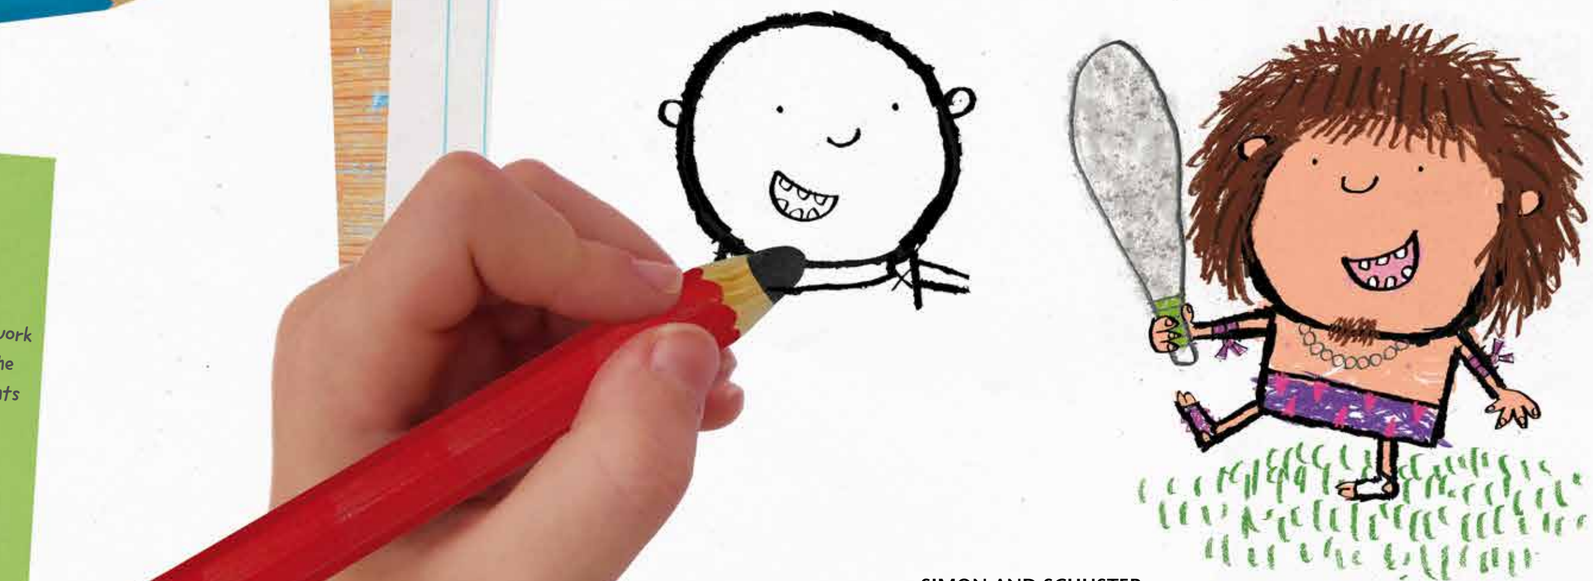
FOUR CAVEMEN AND A PREHISTORIC PENCIL



SIMON AND SCHUSTER
London New York Sydney Toronto New Delhi

A little boy loved drawing.
He loved drawing cavemen best of all.
If only they were real!
What fantastic adventures they could have.

The little boy went to get a drink.
As he left, he accidentally knocked over his pot of pencils and . . .

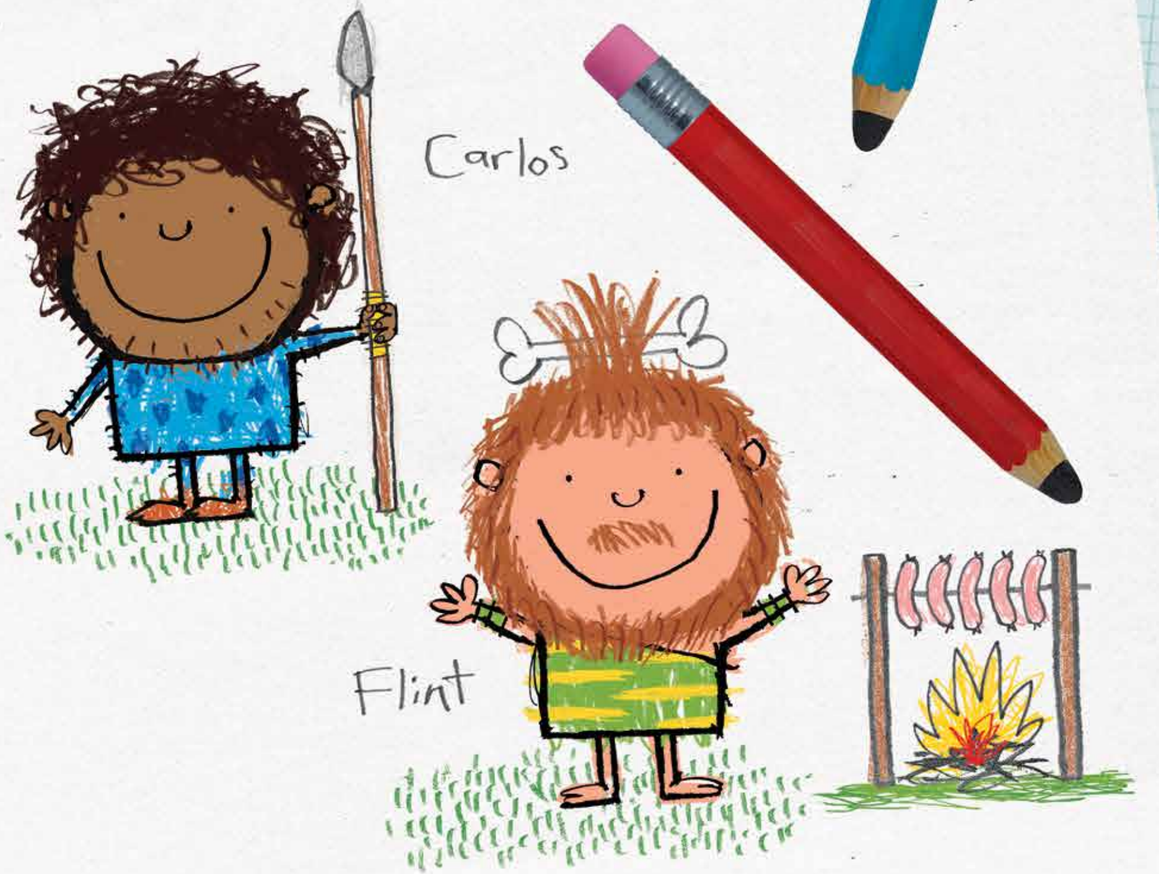
. . . something amazing happened!



THUD!

A pencil rolled over the cavemen's fire –
and put it out!

The picture had come to life!

'Ug-a-loof?!' said Carlos, pointing at the pencil.

'DOOF!' said Flint.

He was cross.
That fire had taken three days
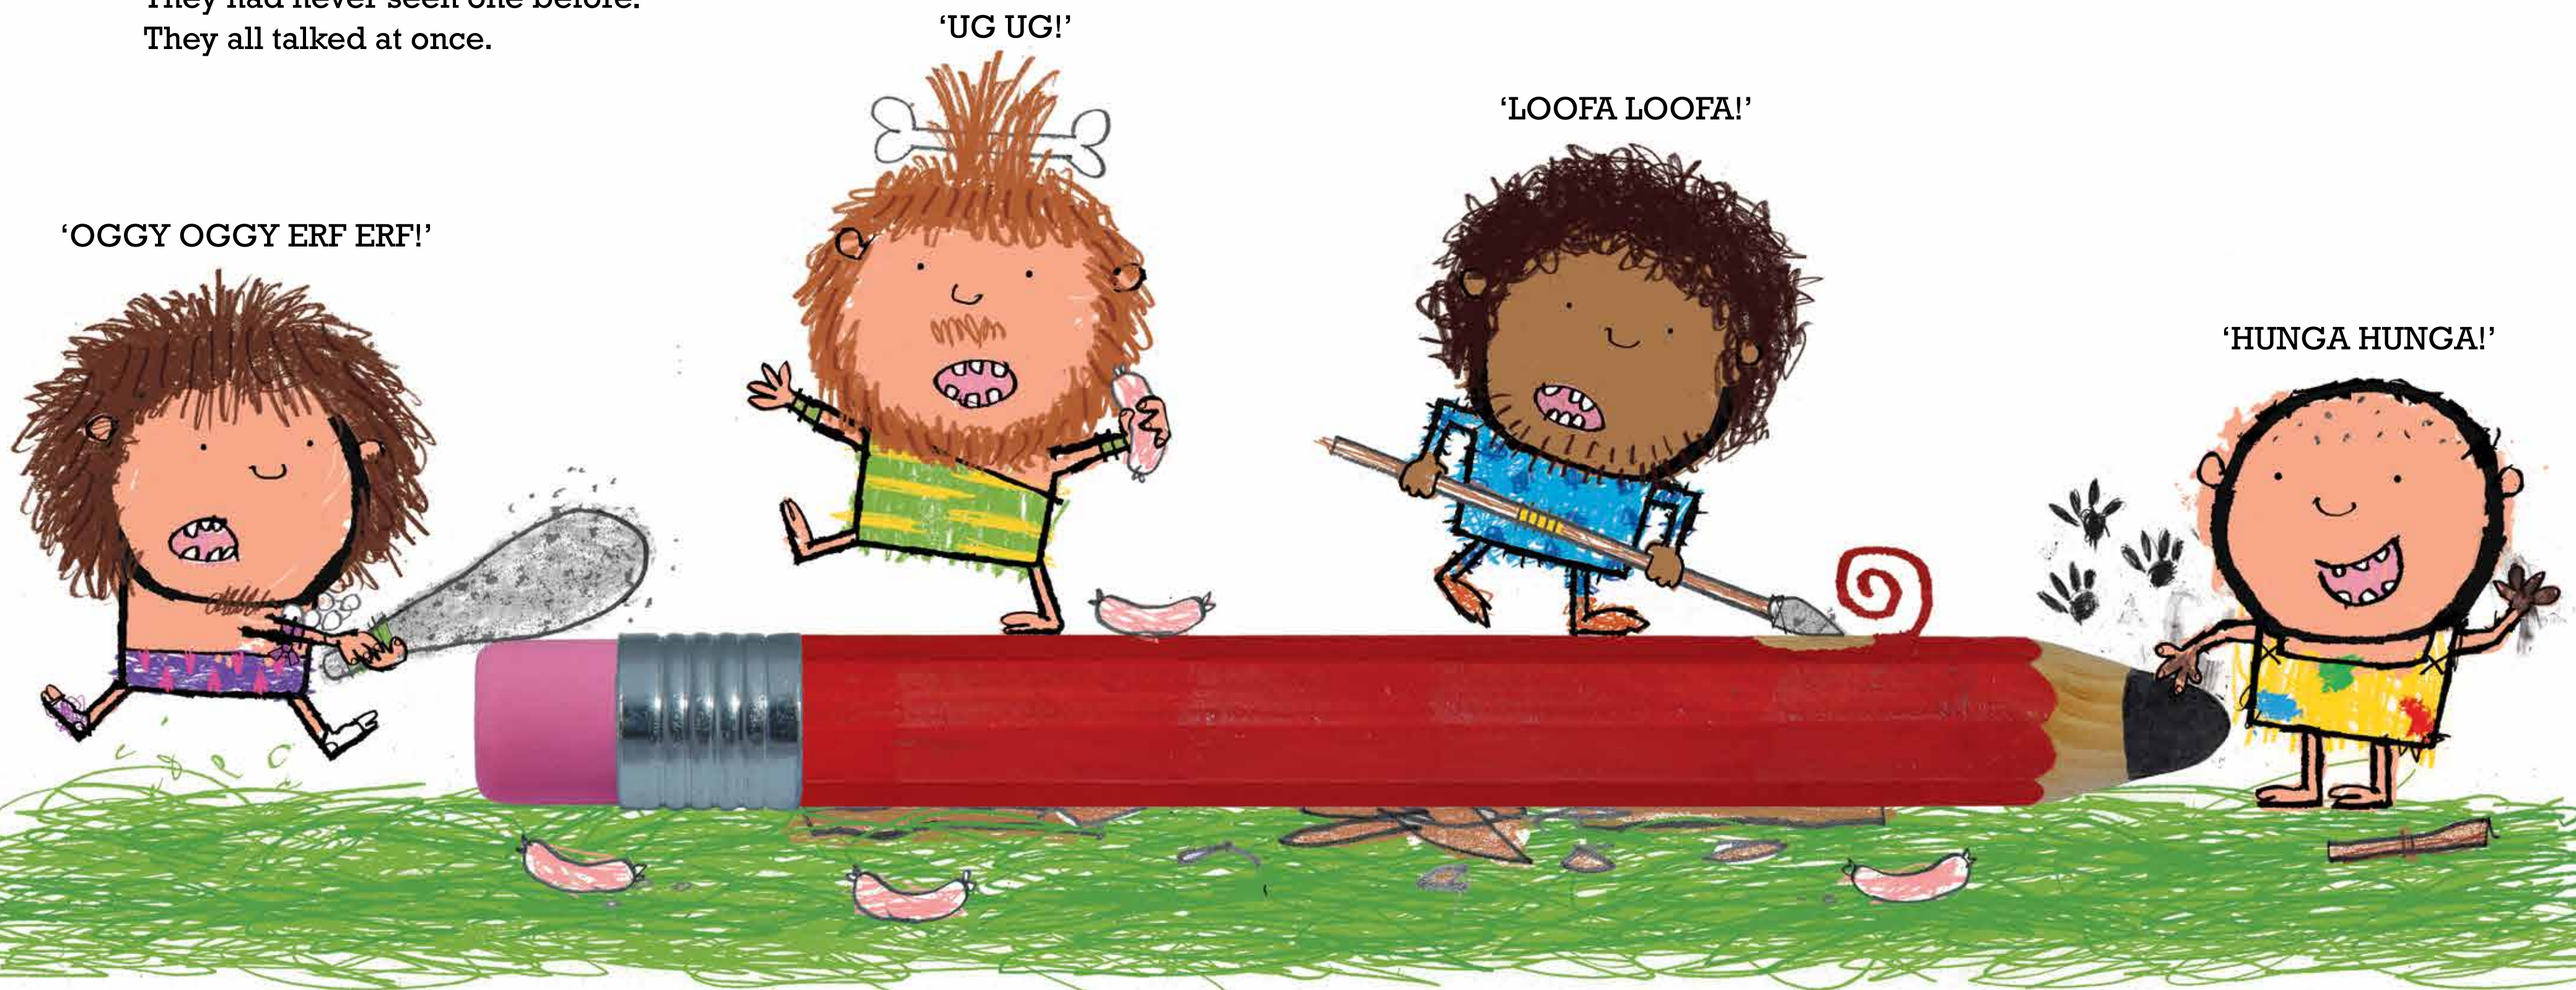
to get going!

The cavemen wondered what to do with the pencil.

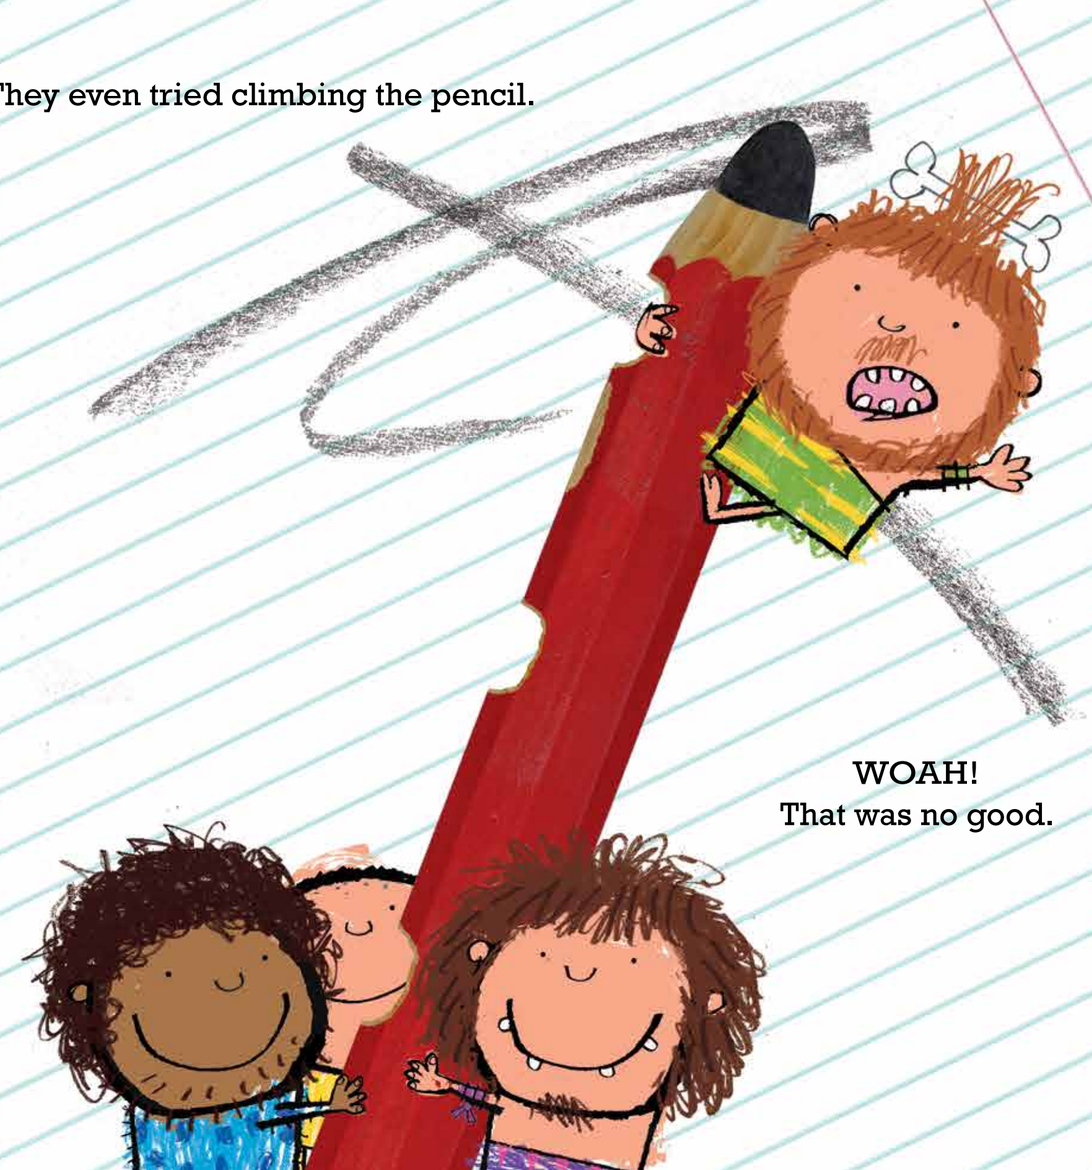
They had never seen one before.
They all talked at once.



They tried eating the pencil.

YUK! YUK! YUK!

They even tried climbing the pencil.



WOAH!
That was no good.
